

Applied Social Research Institute of Cambodia (ASRIC)
in affiliation with Asian/Pacific/American Institute at New York University presents

Shared Suffering, Shared Resilience
Atrocities of the Khmer Rouge: Legacies, Testimonials and Urgent Collective Action

Date: Saturday, December 13, 2008

Time: 9:00 am to 7:00 pm

Location: O'Leary Auditorium, University of Massachusetts Lowell
510 O'Leary Library @ 61 Wilder Street, Lowell, Massachusetts

In 1975-79, the Khmer Rouge systematically killed an estimated 2 out of 7 million Cambodians through torture, starvation, or execution. More than 30 years later, the suffering continues as two generations of Cambodians struggle to overcome a horrific shared past and reclaim their personal, national, and spiritual identity as an empowered and resilient people. The Shared Suffering, Shared Resilience Forum is a one-day event featuring:

- Testimonials by first and second generation community survivors
- Presentations by scholars and experts on Cambodian history and the Hybrid Khmer Rouge Tribunal (formally recognized as the ECCC)
- Film screenings on the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC), including its process of indictment of the perpetrators of the Khmer Rouge genocide
- Open dialogue with the audience after each program event

Please join us for an unforgettable day of personal testimonies, expert presentations, and films as we support the rediscovery of the Cambodian spirit.

A FREE public event
Register or contact ASRIC at contact@asric-cambodia.org